On the Ground

On Wednesday here at First Baptist Church we had our monthly food pantry. The really is a group effort as many volunteers make organizational decisions, pack the food to share, sign in guests and help with various paperwork at the pantry, socialize and give a warm welcome, and help with carrying food to the car. In short, every month I am so proud of the effort that you make to help this ministry happen.

This week we asked members of the church to bring produce from their gardens to share with our food pantry guests. After food was given to a family and taken to the car they were invited share a meal. The spread in the CLC looked grand. Homemade breads, dips, tomato sandwiches, peaches, okra, green beans, squash casserole, fried green tomatoes and other tasty dishes were ready to go.

A few members were ready to sit down and visit with friends who were quickly gathering. At one point I sat down with two ladies who'd had a very hard day. They were tired from work and caring for grandchildren. One of them said to me, 'You are the pastor, right?'

'Yes, I am,' I said, not knowing exactly what might come next.

'I have been to many churches and food pantries over the years and I have never been treated like this.' She said, 'This is so very nice of you all.'

When asked, 'What is the greatest of the commands?' Jesus answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' And the second one is this, 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.'"

May we always strive to be that kind of church. Amen.

Blessings, Ande
