Run the Race

I have five kids. Right now all five are running on cross country teams. It amazes me that all of them are willing to do something that most kids their age don't like to do.

Running isn't an easy thing to do. When Brent first started running cross country about five years ago, his coach jokingly told me that his coaching was very simple. He said, "I told them to run that way (pointing away from himself with his finger), real fast!" We both laughed at the instruction.

You see if you start too fast, you will finish in the back because you have spent all your energy trying to be in the front. The idea is to set your pace, run your race and finish as high in the placement as you can. The race is long and hard.

Being a Christian is similar. As a new Christian we are all excited. We work, play, worship and spend every effort to show, tell and experience all we can. While that motivation is good, the effort of the turtle is probably a better example. Our goal should be to work diligently, consistently and keep the faith.

Everyone is running in this race. Let's set our pace and keep it. We have all heard and read, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me," Philippians 4:13. So, we can run but as we set our pace, be diligent in our desire to walk closer to Christ, be steadfast in our prayer and help one another. These are all part of the race.

At the end of my days, I would like to be able to say, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." I ran my race. More importantly, I brought others to the race. God bless you as you run.
