How to reach people for Christ

People ask me a lot about how to share Christ’s love with other people or how to reach people for Christ. I almost always say some version of “it all starts with a relationship.” People usually agree; but aren't sure exactly how to put that into practice.

I realized that maybe I should add more explanation. I believe it all starts with TWO relationships. Our relationship with God and our relationship with the person/people we are trying to reach for Christ.

First, our relationship with Christ must be a serious one; not dating Christ but instead, in love with Him and His Word. Next, we must pursue positive relationships with people. When we show that we care about someone, they are more likely to be open to hearing the truth of the Gospel.

Currently, we have a ministry leader that has developed relationships with many students. This leader has exhibited how deeply they care for those students, by their actions. In turn, I've watched students respond to that leader because they can see how much the leader cares. This leader has the opportunity to share life with them and - more importantly - share their love for Christ.

The leader has worked for (by caring for students) the opportunity to share her love of God with them.

Who are you going to care for this week? Who are you going to choose to reach this week?

In Christ,
Mike

Nursery Need: If you have two arms and hands, this may be the place for you! We are in need of loving arms (people) to rock and hold babies during the Sunday morning worship service. We are trying to create an 8-week rotation so volunteers would only assist once every two months. Please contact Mike Green or the church office if you want to love on babies.
