The Value of Student Ministry

Obviously I have a heart for students and have always considered student ministry to be of utmost importance. However, still, sometimes God reminds me how important it is to invest in students.

A short story:

Braxton, my son, was at his grandmother’s house a couple of weeks ago. He and his older cousins went down to the basement. When they came back upstairs, one of his older cousins exclaimed, “The basement is scary!” Apparently, they had gotten scared while they were down there.

Braxton immediately looked at her and said, “Let me tell you something! Even when you are scared, Jesus loves you.”

I was such a proud dad in that moment. After the kids left, I explained to the other adults that Braxton had learned that at Vacation Bible School. Braxton had been in the nursery with Pat Pat during VBS and periodically she would take him to an opening session, closing session, or the preschool class. He only participated in a small portion of VBS and took away something that we should all remember more often than we do. As a child of God, Jesus always loves us. Even when we are scared, even when we are left out, even when we don’t understand, and even when we do wrong, Jesus loves us. Jesus always loves us.

From my 3 year old son, I was reminded of what I had just taught kids during VBS.

God,
Thank you for using everyone to teach us.

Mike
