Message	'Speak, LORD, for Your Servant is Listening'	Ande Myers
Litany of Ordination		David Williams

Leader: We are gathered today to worship God and to ordain our brothers in Christ, Eddie Byrd, Jon Carroll, and Tom Stephens servants of the Lord, as deacons.

People: We gladly and joyfully set them apart for this high office.

Leader: Serving as a deacon is more than just an honor; it is a task which calls for service, faithfulness, humility, openness, courage to speak and live one's convictions.

People: Through our knowledge of them we have found that they possess these traits.

Leader: As a members of diaconate, they will be charged with guiding our church to reach people for Christ and to train them in Christian discipleship.

People: We will seek to follow their leading so that our church may accomplish this goal.

Candidates: I will willingly serve God and his Son Jesus Christ through this church, but I must have your support and cooperation.

People: We offer you our support and pledge our help in every way that is possible to give.

Candidates: Will you give serious consideration to ways in which our church can be faithful and creative in being the body of Christ in this community?

People: We pledge that we will take seriously our call to establish a Christ-like presence in this community and will support you in doing so.

Candidates: I accept this pledge of support and will to the best of my spiritual awareness, strive to be worthy of this trust and of the name deacon.

Pastor: I pledge you my assistance, openness, cooperation, and initiative so that together we can magnify our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Candidates: I am willing to join with you in serving to accomplish the goals of the church and not to further selfish ends.

Deacons: As those deacons with whom you will be serving, we welcome you into our body and pray that God will bless you, our church, and us as we are faithful to him.

People: We ask our heavenly Father to guide faithfully our church and these who lead us.

Leader: May our one goal be to proclaim Jesus Christ so that all may come to his love.

All: "Let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we may reap if we faint not."
