Store for a Rainy Day

I opened the back of my car this afternoon with Janet standing there. No, things did not fall out of the back contrary what Janet states. Lurking in the corner of the rear hatch area was Batman. Not THE Batman, but an action figure of Batman. A certain little boy placed them there just in case.

In case of what? Tanner simply said he might need them. There are action figures stuffed between his car seat and the car. Again, just in case. He doesn't like to be without something to play with just in case he is at church and has forgotten some toys, or at a track meet with nothing to do, or sitting in my classroom bored. He has them 'stored away for a rainy day.'

Don't you wish our faith was like that? You could say extra prayer so that when you forgot to give thanks for the many blessings of life, you simply called upon the 'rainy day superheroes' you have stored up. If you said a word you shouldn't have, your rainy day fund automatically antes up. You refuse to forgive and there is your 'rainy day fund' once again minding the gap for you.

I propose that we do have a 'rainy day fund.' His name is Jesus Christ and he sits on the right hand of the Father making intercessions for all of us. Pray, be thankful, be worshipful and be blessed. You are that superhero in the back corner of the car.

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. (Ephesians 1:2.4)

Blessings, Brian
