‘With it he touched my mouth and said, ‘See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.’ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send? And who will go for us? And I said, ‘Here am I. Send me.’”
Isaiah 6.7-8

Our guest preacher today is Travis Freeman. Travis obtained his Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from the University of Kentucky, He went on to earn his Master of Divinity and Doctorate of Philosophy from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

At 12 years old, Travis became sick with what was eventually diagnosed as Cavernous Sinus Thrombosis (CST). It had settled and taken hold, masquerading for nine days as nothing more than a severe headache. After the surgery that saved his life, Travis lost his eyesight.

Travis now resides in Williamsburg, KY with his wife Stephanie, and is an adjunct professor at University of the Cumberlands. He also serves as CEO of the Freeman Foundation, a nonprofit dedicated to promoting the truth that “disability does not equal inability.”
