THIS WEEK AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

- Reach Out and Touch: If you have not selected a Reach Out and Touch Card for the Fall Season, please do so now.
- The Tutoring Center will begin Tuesday, November 1 and we can use your help. Of course, we need more tutors, but we also need prayer partners, refreshment providers, and funds for Bibles for the children. There are so many ways to help. Check with Michelle or the church office to find out in what way you can make a difference in a child's life.
- Hymn Sing at Williamsburg Health and Rehabilitation Center is Monday, October 17, at 1:30 PM.
- Candyland is Coming! We need candy and people to help with this exciting annual mission project to Williamsburg. We need people to direct traffic, man stations, register children, lead children through Candyland, and work in the kitchen. Let J. L. Hamblin know if you can help.
- Upcoming Missions Projects: Shoebox missions (due date November—see church office for details), toilet paper and hygiene products are now being collected for December Food Pantry along with clean, in good repair, used shoes and coats for a Giveaway at the December Food Pantry.
- Mark your calendars: Church –wide Thanksgiving meal is Sunday, November 6, at 5:00 PM in the CLC.
- There will be a church-wide reception to honor Barry and Virginia Arnett on Sunday, October 30, 5-7 pm in the CLC. This is an opportunity to express our appreciation for their many contributions to church and community as they relocate to Lexington. Dessert will be served.
- Dear church family, Thank you for the out pouring of love and support during our time of loss. Your calls, visits, meals, hugs and prayers have helped carry us through this difficult time. It is a true blessing to belong to such a loving, caring body of believers. With grateful hearts, The Harold Faulkner Family.
